THE FRAGRANT GLADIOLUS

Is Now Ready For Your Gardens

We have made special arrangements with the producer to distribute this wonderful Gladiolus development

SWEET AND LOVELY!

The First SWEET Gladiolus offered to the public and LOVELY beyond compare

IN THE PAST

A few of the wild species of Gladiolus are fragrant, but both the species and their hybrids are winter blooming and cannot be grown in gardens in the North Temperate Zone. Furthermore, they are very small unattractive flowers.
